From My Heart to Yours...

We do a lot of remembering in the church. At Christmas we remember Jesus' birth. During Holy Week we remember Jesus' journey to Jerusalem and his death. And at Easter we remember Jesus' resurrection. We change colors in the sanctuary to remember different church seasons. We place symbols like candles, bread and cup, water and ash to mark special moments. But what is all this remembering for? What now? Are these just stories of the past, our roots in faith, our ancestry DNA, or do these stories intercept with our own story to give us a new life in our own world? That is the question for the season after Easter. How do these amazing events in time affect our time and our lives today?

April not only brings warmer weather, spring flowers, and the hope of new life in baby birds and summer coming, but it also brings opportunities for new growth within the church. There will be two, not one, adult Sunday morning groups starting in April. Matthew Edison will teach a study on the Gospel of Mark in the hut, and Cathy Evans will start a writing group that will meet in the parlor, and the youth will continue to meet in their room to discuss "God & us." We will also celebrate Earth Day on Sunday, April 22, with Freeman Owle, Cherokee Storyteller, and celebrate our fellowship by sharing a meal together every third Wednesday beginning April 18. These offerings provide opportunities to connect the past with our present.

Come join in this April, so that our remembering grows into something new - a future with hope!

Pastor Terry
