5th Sunday in Lent

March 29, 2020

Welcome

Call to Worship

Psalm 130 & 126

Our soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning

Hope in the Lord!

For with the Lord there is steadfast love, and great power to redeem.

The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced.

May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy.

Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves.

Prelude

Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring

Morning Prayer

Lord Jesus, into our dying, sick world, you bring life. Your light shines into our darkness. Your life burst the bonds of our death. Forgive us, Lord Christ, for our attempts to secure our lives on our own, rather than rest secure in your love and grace.

In this moment of silence,

HEAR OUR PRAYERS

Disrupt our limited notions of what can and can't be done in this world. Open our minds to the surprises that you want to work among us. Help us to enjoy your creative energy not to let the cross be the last word.

As we pray the prayer our Lord taught us, bring us Easter, even though it is still Lent.

OUR FATHER....

Who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Musical Meditation

Amazing Grace

Scripture: Philippians 4: 4-7

Meditation: Rejoice

Sending

the Lorica or Breastplate of St. Patrick

On this day, we call on God's strength to direct us,

God's power to sustain us,

God's wisdom to guide us,

God's vision to give us light.

May we have God's ear to our hearing,

God's word to our speaking,

God's hand to uphold us, and God's pathway before us.

Choral Benediction

May the love of God go with you from this place.

May your hours and days show forth His praise.

Leading worship today.

Thank you to Cathy Arps for playing the violin,
