Prelude Faith Hayes

Welcome

Musical Call to Worship arr. Carter
All Things Bright and Beautiful

Call to Worship From Psalm 71

In you, O Lord, I take refuge;
never let me be put to shame.
In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me;
Incline your ear to me and save me.
Be a strong fortress, to save me,
For you are my rock and my refuge.
For you, O Lord, are my home, my trust.
My praise is continually of you.
Let us worship God.

Prayer of the Day

It is good to give you thanks, O God, and to sing praises to you, O Most High. The dawn is a gift of your abiding mercy; the night passes safely, thanks to your grace. We arise to grant you all glory and honor; we bow down before you and worship your name. We can hear the coming of a new day of faithfulness because of Christ Jesus, in whose name we pray. Amen

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Hymn Hymn of Promise Sleeth

*In the bulb there is a flower, in the seed, an apple tree
In cocoons a hidden promise: Butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*There's a song in every silence seeking word and melody.
There's a dawn in every darkness bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future, what it holds a mystery
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*In our end is our beginning, in our time infinity.
In our doubt there is believing, in our life eternity
In our death a resurrection; at the last a victory
Unrevealed until its season, something God along can see.*

Choral Benediction

May the love of God go with you from this place.
May your hours and days show forth His praise.
