From My Heart to Yours....

This is the last time I will write from my heart to yours, but I will always hold you in my hearts!

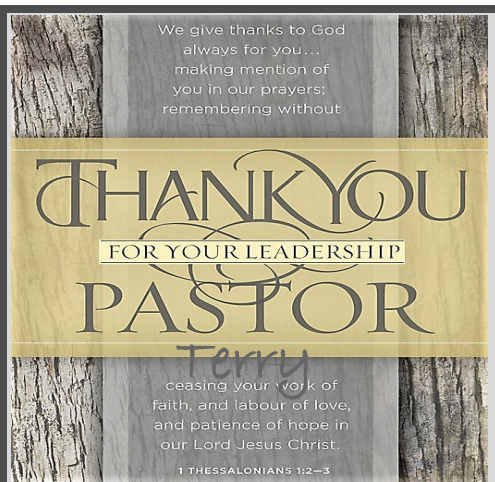

What does one say after so many years? I could remind you what we have accomplished together- from a small dying church to a vibrant community of diverse people.

I could encourage you to continue to “be” the church- in caring for each other, caring for the community in which we live, and reaching out beyond our county to a larger world. But to be honest the only thing I am thinking about right now is you. You welcomed me into the sacred places of your lives- the sorrows and joys, the births and deaths, the uncertainties and fears, the sudden insights and found wisdom, the reversals and triumphs, and I am grateful. And like the apostle Paul,

“I am confident of this, that the One who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 1:6)

So what does one say after so many years? I guess Mark and I can only say that these years with you have been a blessing. We will miss you, never forget our years with you, and we will always hold you in our hearts!
